The following Is From The

Wakonda, S. D. Centennial Book 1885 – 1985

Hans M. and Mable Nelson Family

Hans M. Nelson (March 27, 1875 – April 3, 1963) was born in Clay county to Hans and Hannah Nelson who homesteaded four south, one east of and ½ mile south of Wakonda. Their sons, Hans married Mable Conrad (Feb. 11, 1885- May 17, 1940) and they continued to live on the farm and raised four children. Maynard Nelson (June 15, 1914). Pearl Nelson Sorenson (Aug. 26, 1915), Harlan Nelson (May 29, 1921) and Dorthy Nelson Babb (Jan. 11, 1927). Hans built onto the homestead house and then built a larger house in 1930 which was home to many people. As friends and relatives came from the “old country,” Denmark, many of them lived with Hans and Mable until they could get started on their own. It was not unusual to have extra people to feed and Pearl remembers well stirring up a cake when they could see unexpected company coming down the long driveway.

Wayne Beaty, a great grandnephew of the homestead family, now owns this farm with his wife.
