HISTORY

This farm located in the SW ¼ of Section 28, Star Township, Clay County was homesteaded by Samuel Montgomery.

The 1894 Clay County Atlas lists Samuel Montgomery as the owner.

The 1901 Clay County Atlas lists Mary Montgomery as the owner.

The 1912 Clay County Atlas lists Samuel Montgomery as the owner.

The 1924 and 1937 Clay County Atlas lists Mary J. Montgomery as the owner, and also in the 1937 Atlas lists J. P. Hanson as the operator (renter).

The 1948 and 1956 Clay County Atlas lists J. P. Hanson as the owner.

The Following Is Furnished By Alvin Paul Hanson

Samuel Montgomery immigrated to the United States about 1875 from Ireland. Two brothers came at the same time.

Samuel bought the land patents on the NW ¼ and SW ¼ of Section 28 and the NE ¼ of Section 29 in Star Township, Clay County South Dakota in 1875. Robert Montgomery bought the land patent on the NE ¼ of Section 28, Star Township and Joseph Montgomery bought the SE ¼ of Section 28, Star Township.

The home was built and the barn was built soon after. No money was barrowed. There has never been a mortgage on this land. The Montgomery's must have had money to invest in this farming operation.

Samuel Montgomery had a daughter by the name of Mary Jane. She married the hired man whose name was Jorgen Peter Hansen. They had no children.

Nels L. Hansen a brother to Jorgen Peter Hansen inherited the farm after Mary Jane and Jorgen Peter Hansen died.

Paul Hansen bought this land from his parents estate after they died.

Paul Hansen has two trunks that came to America with the Montgomery's. One of the trunks still has the shipping label on it. The other trunk is on loan to the W. H. Over Museum, here in Vermillion.
